Session 25111: Business and the Human Right to Water and Sanitation

August 25, 2011
14:00 – 17:30

Location: Stockholmsmässan, Room T3

Session Objectives & Description

Objectives:
- To explore how businesses can ensure their operations are in accordance with the human right to water and sanitation.
- To identify practical actions businesses can take, as large water users, to respect and fulfill this human right.

This session will explore emerging good practice related to how businesses can respect the human right to water and sanitation. It will begin with a segment led by the Institute for Human Rights and Business (IHRB) to inform and seek feedback from participants on the Institute’s report: More than a resource: Water, Business and Human Rights. The second half of the session will focus on scoping the forthcoming CEO Water Mandate operational guidance that will elucidate practical measures businesses can take to ensure their operations are in accordance with the human right to water and sanitation.
